

Beya Gille Gacha: Hide and Seek

It's no secret we're big fans of what's happening at Keijsers Koning. The current show is an excellent example of what we like about the gallery's program. This exhibit by Cameroonian artist Beya Gille Gacha is unlike anything you'll see in commercial spaces; it's delightfully interesting to spend time with, a little strange, and draws on deep meaningful inspirations. Like many of the exhibits prior, Hide and Seek contains both sculpture and painting, creating an immersive experience.

Hide and Seek remains on display at Keijsers Koning through October 7. Hours and information here.
